Finance Snapshot

$$\text{Finance}$$

On January 22, 1955, you could buy a new car for $2,061, and then get the tank filled at the gas station for $0.29 per gallon. On your way home to your new $11,141 house, you could stop at the store to pick up a loaf of bread for $0.17.

Reading the paper, you might notice that in the stock market, the Dow Jones Industrial Average was at 397. Given that it hit over 35,000 in 2022, you might wonder if it had been worth investing in stocks. Or perhaps gold? Gold was trading at $35.15 per oz, compared to hitting over $2000 per oz in 2020.

Phase of the Moon

You were born under a waning crescent moon. People born under this moon tend to be quiet, introspective intellectuals. Their visionary ideas help make them become great leaders. Rather than lead through charisma, they lead through their hard work ethic and far reaching goals. Their can-do attitude is followed up by actually doing it rather than talking about it. This quality makes it hard for them to accept people who do not deliver what they promise. They tend to be loners, and bloom later in life. They are more likely to work out on a chess board or a crossword puzzle than in a team sport.

Astrological Love Compatibility

Your sign is Aquarius. You are most compatible with Libra and Sagittarius. However you are also a very good match with Gemini, Aries, and Aquarius. Though the relationship will take a little more effort, it can still work out with Cancer, Leo, Pisces, and Capricorn. But you should try to avoid Taurus, Virgo, and Scorpio.

Tarot Birth Reading

Your tarot birth profile is composed of one or more of the following cards:

A personality card. This card is an indication of what you need to learn or master in your lifetime. Study the card well to determine if you are indeed learning the lessons that you should be. It also characterizes your talents and strengths, and how others see you.

A soul card. This card represents your soul's purpose in life, your qualities that will help you, and your weaknesses that will hold you back. It is the core of who you are.

A shadow card. This card, if you have one, reflects the parts of you that you fear, reject, or are simply unaware of. It is indeed the 'shadow' of your personality card. Sometimes called the teacher card, you should face it in order to grow. Turn weaknesses into strengths.
Your personality card is also your soul card - a hint that you should perhaps pay particular attention to the message:

The Chariot

The chariot represents a hard-fought victory. Mustering enough conviction, will power, and discipline will ultimately lead to conquest. You need to rely on yourself, work hard, and be brave. But be careful, you must stay in control of yourself. The opposing colors, and even slightly opposing directions, of the two sphinxes pulling the chariot represent the need to make sure that all of your energies are working together for a common goal. In the end, the danger is the chariot either leading you down the wrong path, or falling apart from lack of control of the driving forces that help you achieve your goals. Victory should not come at too high a cost, beware of ruthlessness and anger management issues.

Your shadow/teacher card is:

The Tower

The Tower is a harbinger of revelations, or of sudden and explosive changes. It's a card about questioning our beliefs, and dealing with proofs to the contrary. This could be beliefs about others in our lives, about our inner selves, or ideologies, or any other belief system. Learning that something you believed was false is never easy, hence the explosive, violent nature of the illustration. But tearing down these falsehoods is what allows you to rebuild on a more solid foundation of truth. Learning to deal with disruption and moments of chaos is key.
Chinese Astrology

Birth Year Animal

You were born in the Year Of The Horse. The horse is a yang animal, and is part of the third trine. The third trine consists of the Tiger, Horse, and Dog. These three signs seek a true lover, and are like-minded in their pursuit of humanitarian causes. Idealistic and impulsive, the Tiger, Horse and Dog follow the beat of their own drum. Defiant against injustice, these three signs wilt without large amounts of physical affection and loyal support for causes. They are productive, enthusiastic, independent, engaging, dynamic and honorable. They can also be rash, rebellious, quarrelsome, hot-headed, reckless, anxious, moody, disagreeable, and stubborn. Although these three signs are loyal, they can be very protective when lied to. The three signs do not enjoy being told what to do, but will listen when it is a person they love or trust wholeheartedly. These three animals can also be particular and will get aggressive when something true to them is broken.

Relationship Compatibility

You are a best match with a Tiger, Goat, and Dog. You are also a good match with a Dragon, Snake, Monkey, Rooster, Pig, Rabbit, and Horse. But you are not a match for a Rat, Ox.

Fixed and Birth Elements

In addition to being influenced by your birth animal, you are also influenced by two of the five elements in Chinese astrology: Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal, and Water.
Your animal is associated with the fixed element fire. Fire attributes are considered to be dynamism, strength and persistence; however, it is also connected to restlessness. The fire element provides warmth, enthusiasm and creativity, however an excess of it can bring aggression, impatience and impulsive behavior. In the same way, fire provides heat and warmth, however an excess can also burn. Fire is associated with negative emotions of hate and the positive emotion is joy.

Your birth year element is wood. Hence you are a Yang Wood Horse. Wood attributes are considered to be strength and flexibility, as with bamboo. It is also associated with qualities of warmth, generosity, co-operation and idealism. The Wood person will be expansive, outgoing and socially conscious. The wood element is one that seeks ways to grow and expand. Wood heralds the beginning of life, springtime and buds, sensuality and fecundity.

Birth Month Animal

An additional animal influences your life: your birth month animal. Yours is the ox, which is part of the second trine. The second trine consists of the Ox, Snake, and Rooster. These three souls conquer life through endurance, application, and slow accumulation of energy. Although each sign is fixed and rigid in opinions and views, they are geniuses in the art of meticulous planning. They are hardworking, discreet, modest, industrious, charitable, loyal, punctual, philosophical, patient, and good-hearted individuals with high moral standards. They can also be self righteous, vain, critical, judgmental, myopic, narrow minded, and petty. They are also natural leaders, but are better natured than the first trine.
